The State Board of Agriculture, in session at Old Point yesterday, decided to establish the Virginia experimental agricultural station of Tidewater on the Diamond Springs tract, about six miles from Nortois, in Princess Anne county.

The board was in session from poon until 7 o'clock before the final action on the location of the station was taken.

was taken."

Farm Offered to State.

Mr. J. Lyneman, of Norfolk, representing the Southern Produce Exchange of Tidewater Virginia appearad before the board and offered the site of fifty-seven acres on the historic farm. Mr. Lyneman declared that the Southern Produce Exchange would make a gift of the farm to the State of Virginia if the board would accept it. It was understood that the accept it. It was understood that the location will be rejected if the gov-ernment's expert from Washington finds that the soil is not adapted to the work proposed to be entered into the work proposed to be entered into by the State.

Board of Control Sugegsted.

According to the plan suggested by the committee there is to be a board of control, consisting of two members from the board of agriculture, two from the Virginia Polytechnic Insti-tute which is to bear the charge the tute, which is to have entire charge of the experimental farm. The board of control is to name in turn a board of regents to be made up of a representative farmer from every county in the Tidewater district. It is understood that the committee further recommends that an expert Tract Worth $1.500.

Mr. Lyneman in conversation with a Daily Press correspondent said that the tract of land offered the State Board of Agriculture was worth in the neighborhood of $15,000. It is an ideal location and is situated on a railway, which has offered to supply the electricity for lighting and the power for installing a telephone system free of charge. Reasonable and satisfactory freight rates have been agreed upon.

eye was not injured.

Dr. Ashby, whose affice is in King street, dressed the wounds of the injured man, taking many stitches in order to close the cuts.

Brooks was arrested by Policeman John West Cunningham and Town Sergeant Walter B. Owens on the charge of malicious cutting. He was taken before Magistrate J. Albert Dean, who, after hearing the testimony of witnesses, sent Brooks to july.

According to the witnesses Brooks and Jackson got into a controversy over the payment of a bill alleged to be due the former. Hot words fol-lowed and Brooks drew his razor and passed it along the right side of the face of the man from Suffolk.
